A safe place for you at the Y.

At the Y, we take your safety seriously - online and offline.

If you ever feel worried, talk to a Y person or scan the QR code to raise it.

You can stay anonymous if you want. The Y should always feel like a safe place to be yourself.

What we WILL do

Keep spaces safe

Anything you use through the Y online will be safe, respectful and right for your age.

Use official and safe ways to connect with you

We'll only reach out to you through official Y platforms and devices, and only about programs you're part of.

Keep your info private

Your info is yours. We'll only share it if we really have to - e.g. if someone's safety is at risk, or if it's needed so you can take part in the program.

Make it easy for you to speak up

You'll always have safe, anonymous and culturally respectful ways to raise concerns - like QR codes, online forms or trusted Y adults like your program leader or staff at your Y centre.

Check in with your trusted adults

Before we message, call or chat with you, we'll always include your parent or guardian.

Respect your image and identity

Nothing about you without you - we'll ask for your consent before taking or sharing photos, videos or creative work, and explain exactly how it'll be used.

Be upfront with you

If we're recording a session, saving info or collecting feedback, we'll tell you clearly and explain why - so you're never left guessing.

Listen to you + act.

Your voice counts - what you say matters to us. If you raise a concern, we'll respond quickly, take it seriously and let you know what's happening so you're not left in the dark.

Make sure you belong.

We'll make sure you feel safe, included and respected - whoever you are.

What we will NEVER do

- Message you on personal social media, messaging apps or personal devices.
- Send or post anything unsafe, disrespectful, rude or inappropriate.
- Pressure you to share something or keep secrets from your trusted adults.
- Ignore, brush off or delay when someone raises a concern.
- Treat anyone unfairly because of their identity, culture, ability, language or belief.

Your Rights. Your Safety. Your Y.

Contact us at safe@the-y.org.au

the Y